The Thinking Ahead Workshop is an afternoon of workshops and exhibition booths designed to provide insight to individuals, parents, educators and professionals who have been touched in some capacity by special needs.

Keynote Speaker

We are excited to welcome Dan Hill, who successfully practiced business and real estate law for 25 years, served as commissioner on the State Board that regulates wildlife in Pennsylvania, served on Capitol Hill as a Senior Policy Adviser and Counsel for a member of the House of Representatives and, who now writes a weekly column on economic topics. Having Asperger's syndrome, Mr. Hill will speak about his challenges and successes as an "Aspie".
